

Without Health Care

13,800 children under five die each day from preventable causes. Jesus desires your healing shall spring forth speedily!

Illiterate

Approximately 773 million people are illiterate, the majority are women Jesus entreats, Extend your soul to the hungry!

Approximately 773 million people are illiterate and the majority are women (UNESCO). The lack of literacy can greatly impact a person's ability to get work or provide opportunities for their family.

"The single most significant thing that can be done to cure extreme poverty is this: protect, educate, and nurture girls and women, and provide them with equal rights and opportunities, educationally, economically, and socially" (The Hole in Our Gospel, Richard Stearns 156-157).

Three diseases especially kill—malaria, TB, and AIDS. These killers are mostly controlled in the richer parts of the world where the best medicines are readily available. A low-cost treatment for TB can prolong a person's life around 20 years.

A huge number of children under five will die today from preventable causes like diarrhea, malaria, pneumonia, birth complications, and hunger. How many? Approximately 13,800 precious lives. Picture 35 Boeing 777 jumbo jets crashing today, and again tomorrow, and the next day (unicef.org). We can learn where our help is most needed in "The State of the World's Children."

Because we live in a wealthy country, we are likely to live 18 years longer than the poor who lack health care.

It is estimated that 1 in 3 women around the world have been subjected to physical or sexual violence, mostly by their partners and especially in lower-income areas (UN Women).

A report of child abuse is made every ten seconds in the USA. Added up in one year those children could fill ten football stadiums. The abuse of children physically, emotionally, or sexually makes a significant impact on their potential for physical and mental illnesses and a decreased lifespan (ChildHelp.org).
